WHGA Announces New Professional Engineer Certifications

Chantilly, VA – March 1, 2004 – William H. Gordon Associates, Inc., (WHGA) a veteran-owned civil engineering, surveying, land planning and landscape architecture firm, today announced Jay Horstman and Louise Zwicker have obtained professional engineer certifications in the State of Virginia.

Mr. Horstman is a project engineer in the Leesburg office and has a 15-year tenure with the firm. He has worked on a number of notable projects including the Fairfax County Government Center, George Mason University's George W. Johnson Center, and the Reston Hospital Center expansion. Ms. Zwicker is a senior project engineer in the Leesburg office with direct responsibility for overseeing projects from initial conceptual design through construction. Her 4-year success with the firm includes prestigious residential developments such as Belmont Hunt, Barclay Ridge, Ashbrook Village and Brambleton. She is also involved in a number of roadway and commercial projects, including Catocin Circle Centre.

"We offer a dynamic work environment focused on a commitment to professional growth and are proud of Jay's and Louise's accomplishments", commented Robert W. Woodruff, P.E., regional director. "Our client's value the experience and knowledge base our professionals
