William H. Gordon Associates Appoints New Chief Executive Officer

Chantilly, VA – February 5, 2003 – William H. Gordon Associates, Inc., (WHGA) a veteran-owned civil engineering, surveying, land planning and landscape architecture firm, today announced the appointment of R. Steven Hulsey, P.E., as the firm's new chief executive officer. William (Hank) Gordon, former CEO, will serve as chairman of the board, focusing on long-term strategic growth. He will also work closely with Mr. Hulsey over the next year to facilitate the transition to full-time management of the company's daily operations.

A professional engineer in nine states and a 17-year veteran of the firm, Mr. Hulsey has extensive experience managing, designing, and evaluating a variety of land development projects for public and private sector clients. Since 1991, he has successfully served as the Director of WHGA's Loudoun County office where he took an active role practicing in numerous jurisdictions and representing the building industry. This included serving on the Loudoun County Facilities Standards Manual Public Review Committee for more than eight years, including five as its chairman. Prior to joining WHGA, Mr. Hulsey was a vice-president with Kevin Tucker & Associates in Nashville, Tennessee, where he served as a national civil engineering consultant for Hospital Corporation of America. In addition, he worked for the Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County Department of Public Works where he served as the administrator of their stormwater management program.

“Steve’s diverse background, career successes, dedication to the firm, and forward thinking initiatives, weighed heavily in his selection as the new chief executive officer,” stated William (Hank) Gordon, chairman. “I am confident Steve’s energy, enthusiasm and hard work will allow us to expand our service offerings and ultimately strengthen our competitive position in the marketplace,” Gordon continued. For nearly three decades, William H. Gordon Associates, Inc. has been providing exceptional professional services to public and private sector clients across the Mid-Atlantic Region. A few notable projects include the Fairfax County Government Center, Smithsonian’s National Zoological Park, the Washington Monument, Brambleton Golf Course, River Creek, Heritage Hunt, Belmont and Wolf Trap’s Center for Education. “I have accepted this new role with much excitement and anticipation of the challenges that lie ahead,” stated Steve Hulse, WHGA’s new chief executive officer. “My efforts will be to ensure we always offer services that meet or exceed our client’s changing requirements,” Hulse continued.
