Expanding Landscape Architecture Practice Announces A New Director

Chantilly, VA – March 20, 2007 – William H. Gordon Associates, Inc. (WHGA) is setting new standards with the addition of Mr. Timothy S. Taylor, LA, as Director of Landscape Architecture. To strengthen and enhance its landscape architecture practice, Mr. Taylor will be responsible for the diversification and growth of the landscape architecture and urban planning services.

Mr. Taylor brings twenty-five years of design and real estate development experience, encompassing a diverse range of land use planning and urban design projects, including master-planned residential communities, commercial centers, office park developments, and institutional development projects. His expertise includes a specialization in an environmentally sound approach for landscape architectural design of urban parks, town centers, public plazas, and golf course development projects.

Mr. Taylor is best known for his classically designed work of Crystal Drive streetscape projects in Crystal City, Arlington, Virginia, where he designed many of Crystal City's athletic parks, office plazas, and water features, including Crystal City Water Park, which includes fountains and cascades, as well as other pedestrian gathering areas. Mr. Taylor has designed elements of Duke Gardens at Duke University, and provided extensive project design in The Research Triangle Park of North Carolina where he helped unfold Governor Martin's economic development initiative for Global Transpark in 1990.
