William H. Gordon Associates Names New Principal

Chantilly, VA – February 7, 2005, – William H. Gordon Associates, Inc., (WHGA) a veteran-owned civil engineering, surveying, land planning and landscape architecture firm, today announced the appointment of Robert W. Woodruff, P.E., as a principal of the firm. Mr. Woodruff is regional director of the Leesburg, Winchester and Charles Town offices and works closely with the firm's chief executive officer and partners to address strategic planning, operations, and corporate diversification.

A registered professional engineer in Virginia and West Virginia, and a 20-year veteran of the industry, Mr. Woodruff has extensive experience managing and designing a variety of land development projects. Before joining WHGA, he was the regional development manager for residential projects at Terrabrooke and also was a founding partner of a local civil firm where he contributed to the consistent revenue growth and client service goals of the firm.

"Bob's dedication, vision, and forward thinking initiatives, weighed heavily in his selection as a principal of the firm," stated R. Steven Hulseley, P.E., chief executive officer. "I am confident his energy, enthusiasm and hard work will allow us to achieve continued growth, diversification, and long term strategic goals," Hulseley continued.

Engineers • Surveyors • Land Planners • Landscape Architects

For nearly three decades, William H. Gordon Associates, Inc. has been providing exceptional professional services to public and private sector clients across the Mid-Atlantic Region. A few notable projects include the Fairfax County Government Center, Smithsonian's National Zoological Park, the Washington Monument, Brambleton Golf Course, River Creek, Heritage Hunt, Belmont and Wolf Trap's Center for Education.

"I am truly honored to have the opportunity to be part of William H. Gordon Associates, Inc. and look forward with great anticipation of building upon the company's solid foundation and proven track record," stated Bob Woodruff.
